inwilling witness, and gave his answers

in it.

He said that besides being treasurer of the Club he was a Port Warden of New York. The recording secretary was Benjamin Dale; the financial secretary Abelichtenstein, and the vice-presidents ac R. Terrill and G. Springsteen.

Must Produce His Books. Dale, he said, was employed in the Sur-orate's office. As treasurer of the Club e paid the bills, and when asked by Mr. Boff if he would produce his accounts and check books he replied that he could of do that, as he had no authority to TREASURER MUNZINGER.

"You have the custody of them?"
"Yes, but I can't take them away from e Club without the permission of the "Yes, but I can be be seen the permission of the pard of Directors."
"How many directors are there, and who are they?"
"There are about nineteen. I can't name them all." "There are about nineteen. I can't name them ali."

Munzinger said positively that he could not bring the books. anusinger said positively that he could not bring the books.
"Well, we'll see if the State cannot compet you to produce those books and accounts," said Mr. Goff, and another subpoena calling for the production of the books and papers in question was drawn ub, and Munzinger was allowed to go.

The next witness called was Serapio The next witness called was Serapio Arteaga, a Cuban, who said he opened a saloon in 1889 at 332 Eighth avenue.

"Did you ever have any dealings with the police?" inquired Mr. Jerome.

"Yes, I wanted to open a concert hall, but could not get a license from Mayor Grant, so I decided to run without one. One of my customers told me that if I went to see the Captain I could make arrangements to have a concert hall without a license. So I went to the station in West Thirty-seventh street and saw the Captain in his private office."

station in West Thirty-seventn street and saw the Captain in his private office."

"Who was the Captain?"

"I didn't know his name, but he was a big, thickset man with a black mustache and wore a big diamond."

"Wasn't it Capt. Price?"

"I told him I wanted a license to run my concert hail, and he Laid he could not get me one, but if I wanted to open I must see his ward man, Wagner. Then I went away
"About two days afterwards Wagner came to my place and asked me to on cross-examination Arteaga said he was formerly wealthy, but lost his money in the Cuban war of 1888. He had been in the grocery, tobacco and liquor business at different times.

Flora Waiters, a thin, pale-faced young woman, with short, curly hair, was the next witness. She said she had formerly kept a cafe, with girl waiters, at 214 Sixth street, and before that at E East Fourth street.

"Where do you live now?" asked Mr. Moss.

"Where do you live now?" asked Mr.
Moss.
"I would rather not tell, because I have gone back to my work in a store, and might lose my place. I have a little boy six years old to support."
Mrs. Waiters said that while she was keeping the cafe in Fourth street Ward san Hock came to her and said she must settle up. She had taken the place from a Mrs. Ritter, and sold wine, beer and liquors without a license.
"I knew how much it was, $15, because Mrs. Ritter told me what she paid. All I did was to give the money to lock when he came in. Nothing was ever said to me, and I never got into any trouble. I paid Hock all the time I was in Sixth street, and kept open till last December, when Capt. Cross came into the precinct.
"There was great excitement among the cafe keepers when the police came around and told them that they must close up."

Says She Paid Hock.

"You always paid Hock."
"Tes. Sometimes he came to my house and other times he would send a stoolpigeon, and tell me to meet him hear the Fifth street station. At the house I gave the meney to Hock in ancenvelope, but at the station I simply gave him the money in bills."

The witness said the stool-pigeon was a young man named "Michael," who afterwards kept a cafe, but who got into lisfavor and had to go to Newark.
"What was done to this man."
"His place was raided twice in a week."
"Why?"
"Because he didn't settle up. I would have a set in the settle up. I would have the settle up. I would have a set in the settle up. I would have a set in the settle up. I would have a settle up. I wo

"Why?"
"Because he didn't settle up, I suppose, hat was what every one said."
The witness said that she didn't think he was doing anything wrong in reming a cafe, as she had no rooms in consection with her place. The girls only saited on the tables.

In some cafes there were launges and see him about.

"Have you had any dealings with Ryan in your efforts to get on the police force?"

see him about.

"Have you had any dealings with Ryan in your efforts to get on the police force?"

"Yes, I have an application which has been pending two years. I have been obliged to spend hundreds of dollars for Ryan's organization, and I never have received any appointment. He got me riminal prosecution, for coming here?"

"Have you been threatened with riminal prosecution, for coming here?"

"Ess."

"Have you been threatened with which would be protected by whatever it is a sid I was being robbed, that I didn't have much money and was not a gold mine.

"Why," said Jacobs, "Johnny Dwyer was coming to see me almost every other day and borrowing money from drawn and that nothing he said could be used against him afterwards.

Jacobs said he was one of the Tammany apptains at the last election, and that the Saturday before election day Ryan got all the captains together and gave them their instructions.

Election Captains Instructed.

"Boys, he said, 'next Tuesday it is the duty of each one of you to see that we roll up as large a majority as possible. We have got the election in spectors with us. so that every Tammany vote must be brought out.

"If you get into any trouble, or if any of our votes are challenged, you will also have the police with you. If there are not enough, we will send for more, and get a whole platoons. Never mind about the Republican votes or challenges from Republicans. They wan't count on next Tuesday.

Jacobs went on to say that he had some friends whole lated the count on next Tuesday. "They wan't count on next Tuesday."

Jacobs went on to say that he had some friends who had been enconsurantized, and who wanted to vote in the election.

"When my friends came to me and asked the how to vote I to'd them that I belonged to the Tallmany Hall General Committee and they said they would get the whole vote of the Club for the organization, if I could get them naturalization papers.

Wholesale Naturalizations.

"I referred them all to P. I. Ryan, brother of John J. Ryan, to get naturalization imust see his ward man, Wagner. The "About two days afterwards Wagner came to my place and asked me to my place and asked me how much it could pay to the concert-hall if I would pay for it, and asked me how much it could pay. The concert-hall if I would pay for it, and asked me how much it could pay. The concert hall if I would pay for it, and asked me how much it could pay. The concert hall if I would pay for it, and asked me how much it could pay. The concert hall if I would pay for it, and asked me how much it could pay. The concert hall if I would pay for it, and asked me how much it could pay. The concert hall if I would be best for me to said out two months after I paid him the $20 in my hand, and as we warm to say that those televation in the business. I do wagner took care or more to wagner, who came into his place frequently with the Captain.

"Yes, said the would be best for me to said it would be best world, but they are the best. Every detail in their making has the right attention. They're the cheapest in the end.

Paid to Get the Position.

Cheviot, $1, $1.50, $2, $2.50. Madras, $1.50. . $2.50. Fancy Silk, $3.75, Other Kinds, too.

Keep Mfg. Co., me cafes there were lounges and Broadway, bet. 11th & 12th Sts.

for these the witness said the monthly charge was 430.

"Did you think the Captain could give you permission to sell liquor without a license?" asked Senator Bradley.
"Certainly, if I paid for it," said the witness, "Did you ever keep a disorderly nove." "Certainly, if I paid for it," said the witness, "Did you ever keep a disorderly nove." "I went to Police Headquarters and met Dwyer, who told me to go upstains and wait till I heard my name read out by Sergt. Corbett.
"I did so and went in with a squait. The witness said she had to close up her place last Winter and had gone back to work agrain.
The next witness proved to be an interesting one. He was Morris Jacobs, a tailor, of 1737 Third avenue, Mr. Jacobs, said he had lived in the Twenty-fifth Assembly District about eight years, "Hosbrook came to me and told me it was no use of my trying to pass it, for would reget any rating, and even if the since he received a subpoena from the Committee, Policeman Finnetry, and two other policemen of the One Hurdred and From the Committee, Policeman Finnetry, and two other policemen of the One Hurdred and From the Committee, Policeman Finnetry, and two other policemen for the meter and proven thing from the Committee, Policeman Finnetry, and two other policemen from the Committee, Policeman Finnetry, and two other policemen for the Tamback what is should do, he said the committee, Policeman Finnetry, and two other policemen for the Tamback what is should do, he said the committee, Policeman Finnetry, and two other policemen for the Tamback what is should do, he said the committee, Policeman Finnetry, and two other policemen for the Tamback what is should do, he said the committee, Policeman Finnetry, and two other policemen from the Committee, Policeman Finnetry, and two other policemen for the Tamback what is should do, he said the committee, Policeman Finnetry, and the man and prevent him from testifying before the Committee.

Says He Was Threatened, The I would pay him $100 I needn't go to the examination at all and intimidate him and prevent him from testifying before the Committee.

Says He Was Threatened?

"Finnerty came into my store last night and left the other two outside, said Jacobs." He said to me: I hear you are going before the Senate Committee.

If you do I'll arrest you the first chance if you do I'll arrest you the first chance if you do I'll arrest you the first chance if you."

Such also said to me. You see a squealer and a howler and I'll reak your—head for you."

Jacobs said another policeman, phase name he did not know, also threstened him. Besides that, a friend of his came to him and told him that John J. Ryan, the Tammany leader, wanted to see him, and that Ryan had said that if Jacobs mentioned his name in his testimony he would railroad him to Jail.

"I's Ryan in court?"

"Yes, he is sitting over there," said the witness, pointing to the Harlem Statesman. He also said that William A. Baumert, bother of the Alderman, was in the court yesterday watching things.

"I's Ryan in court?"

"I's Ryan in court?"

"Yes, he is sitting over there," said the witness, pointing to the Harlem Statesman. He also said that William A. Baumert, bother of the Alderman, was in the court yesterday watching things.

"A Bause still to watch me, too," said the witness, pointing to the Harlem Statesman. He also said that William A. Baumert, bother of the Alderman, was in the court yesterday watching things.

"I's Ryan in court?"

"I's Ryan in court?"

"I's Ryan in court?"

"I's warn you to see that Danny gets a percentage as near 100 as possible.

"I'll want you to see that Danny gets a percentage as near 100 as possible.

"I'll want you to see that Danny gets and the witness, pointing to the Harlem of the civil-service examination, and Brandt as a possible.

"I'll want you to see that Danny gets and permissed him a position, and that wha. What the other time he tried. It would not see him about.

"I's Ryan in court?

"I's Ryan in court?

"I's Ryan in court?

"I's an you to see that Danny gets and permissed him to be possible

Objected to the Payments.

Wholesale Naturalisations.

"I referred them all to P. I. Ryan, brother of John J. Ryan, to get naturalization tickets. My friends went to see Ryan and asked what they would get for bringing in the vote of the Club, and he promised them good positions after the election."

The witness said there was some trouble about getting the naturalization papers, but finally they were all provided with tickets, and then they got their papers, Many of the emen thus an attrailized could not speak a word of English, he said.

"What were their naturalization tickets?" asked Commissioner Lexow.
"They were title red tickets, just like restaurant checks, only instead of having the price marked on them they said: "Naturalization Rureau, Tammany Hall," and were signed "John J. Yan, Twenty-fifth District."

"Do you mean to say that those tickets were exchangeable for naturalization papers?" asked the Chairman.

"No, but they saved the man who applied for papers 50 cents down at the court."

"Oh, the organization paid the fee?"
"Yes, that is the way it was done."

His Efforts to Get on, the Force.

Jacobs then went on to tell of his experience in trying to get a place on the propers of the court.

"Who promised it to you?"

"How promised it to you?"

"Who promised it to you?"

that time.

Ex-Judge Curtis immediately leaped to his feet and asked for permission to cross-examine the late witness before adjournment was taken.

"If we allowed everybody to cross-examine witnesses," said the Chair, "our session would be interminable."

"But," said Mr. Curtis, "there are occurring daily assaults upon reputable citizens by the most disreputable and abandoned set of people."

"I object," shouted Mr. Goff. "I ob-complained that he had played fare in Isaac Felmouse's coffee saloon at 198 Stanton street, and had lost $30.

Kohlman was taken to the Essex Market Police Court by Detectives Farrell and Brennan and a warrant was obtained against the place.

This morning Felmouse was arraigned to answer a charge of keeping a gambling house. He denied the charge and demanded an examination. Charles Katzenstein, of 324 East Fourth street, gave bonds for him.

issioner McCiave passed a comfortable night and appeared a little stronger this morning. The at-tending physician said Mr. McClave's nerves were steadler and his appetite better. The Commis-sioner sent for a barber this morning to shave Yerkes Indicted for Perfury. Nathaniel Yerkes was indicted by the King 5 he was arrested in the policy shop of George Otto, 131 Troutman street. He told the police hat he has leen laying there. He was called before the Grand Jury as a witness, but denied his former statements.

to answer for keeping a disorderly house. When the house was raided last night Mrs. Tremsing was found in a supposed fit, being held down by Lulu Ford and a lawer who said he was Edwin R. Leavitt, of 107 Montague street. Brook-lyn. Leavitt defended the woman in court. He said he called at her place on business when she was taken ill.

FATAL MALPRACTICE CASE.

Midwife Vettar Must Answer for Maria Kempf's Death.

The Coroner's office was notified this orenoon of the death of Maria Kempf, the Houstial feath of Maria Rempf, at Belle-at 12.20 o'clock this morning, at Belle-yue Hospital, from the effects of a crimmrs. Catharine Vettar was arrested on Mrs. Catharine Vettar was arrested on May 16, having been identified by Miss Kempf as the midwife who caused the premature birth of her child. Miss Kempf would not divulge the author of her trouble.

VICTIMS OF SNEAK-THIEVES.

Theatrical Man Loses Trinkets and the a Broker Clothing.

James W. Noyes, of 58 West Ninetyseventh street, a broker at 96 Broadway seventh street, a broker at 96 Broadway, has reported to the police that a sneak-thief entered his house last Tuesday and stole an overcoat and other articles of clothing. A man connected with Daly's Theatre, who lives in the same neighborhood, has been robbed of several hundred dollars' worth of goods.

Many other thefts have been committed in that vicinity lately, and one of the shrewdest of Central Office detectives has been detailed to search for the thieves would never get through with its business.

Ex-Judge Curtis replied that the members of the Police Department were represented by Mr. Ransom, but that certain other public servants and private fraud is attempted. The mercitizens were be as attacked and were entitled to represe 'attacked and

The Law Committee of the Kines The trial of Police Captain James to Price, of the West Thirty-seventh street ing the enormous bills of town constantion, charged with allowing a gambles to-day discovered some startling facts in Platlands, as a result of which the present the property of the present the property of th Police Capt. Hendrickson may lose his position.

The bills under the Committee's consideration were those of Constable Richard McAvoy for $2,909.45, Constable Abraham Remsen for $2,172.70 and Police Justice Ford for $2.44.05. The constables tes-tified before the Committee that the amount due them was mostly for servdied before the Committee that the amount due them was mostly for serving subpoenas.

This statement of the constables surprised the Committee, because it is supposed to be the duty of Capt, Hendrickson and his policemen to serve subpoenas and attend to all the criminal work of the town.

The constables were to attend only to civil cases. When Lawyer George F. Elliott, counsel to the Board of Supervisors, questioned Constable McAvoy on this point, that town official made the startling statement that he had made an agreement with Capt. Hendrickson to serve subpoenas and do other criminal work supposed to be the duty of the police and then divide the money received for his bills with Capt. Hendrickson.

"I suppose it was the duty of the po-

Kohiman was taken to the Essex Market Police Court by Detectives Parrell and Brennan and a warrant was rell and Brennan and a warrant was the police of the town are paid by the demanded an examination. Charles I Katzenstein, of 324 East Fourth street, gave bonds for him.

ALLEGED POLICY DEALERS.

Capt. Seibert's Ward Men Arrest

Goldstein and Nettelberger.

Two aleged policy-dealers were held for trial by Justice Koch, in the Essex Market Police Coart to-day. Detectives Parrell and Brennan, of Capt. Seibert's Market Police Coart to-day. Detectives Esamuel Goldstein, of 123 Columbia street, and Sigmund Nettelberger, of 133 Catronom street.

The detectives employed Bernard Green. of 118 Clinton street, to obtain the places of the street, of the police against the places. Green played policy in both places, and the men were then arrested.

BOSTON GAMBLERS' PANIC.

Police Continue Their Raids, and Make Many Arrests.

(I) Associated Press.)

BOSTON, June 8.—The police have created another panle among the gamblers in this city by a series of raids and yolice force for 180 large and which make victims of the large and wilded with the police. The detectives employed in the places of the places o

COXEYITES DIE BY DROWNING Up Twenty of Them.

(By Associated Press.) BRIGHTON, Col., June 8.—The number of Coxevites drowned in the atber of Coxeyites drowned in the atis he was arrested in the policy shop of George Olto, 131 Troutman sirrect. He teld the police hat he has been daying there. He was called before the Grand Jury as a witness, but denied his former statements.

A Lawyer Caught in a Raid,
Maud Tremain, of 336 West Fifty-ninth street, was held in Yorkville Folice Court this morning to answer for keepling a disorderly house. When
to answer for keepling a disorderly house. When
to answer for keepling a disorderly house. When serted, the occupants taking to the road.

At the McKay bridge, several men a were drowned. At Henderson Island bridge, twenty-one men were in the water at one time, but were rescued with ropes by Ralph Lee and Louis Branter. The boat of one man from Utah, known as "Frenchy," has been recovered. Of one boat containing eight six are said to have been lost. The most of the bodies have been washed downstream.

CHILD DRANK POISON.

Found the Bottle Containing It While His Mother Was Out. Frank Carlos, four years old, is in St. Catherine's Hospital, Williamsburg, suffering from the effects of poison, and there is only a faint chance of his re-The child was left alone in a room of The child was left alone in a room of the house 75 Leonard street this morning while his mother went to a neighboring grocery.

In one corner of the room he found a bottle of carbolic acid, and managed to drink a quantity of it. He was found by Mrs. Carlos when she returned ten minutes later, but an ambulance surgeon, who was summoned, said he did not expect him to live until they could get him to the hospital.

FELL OUT OF THE WINDOW.

Deutsch & Co

Fifth Avenue.

SATURDAY.

HIGH CLASS BARGAINS.

Black Moire, trimmed with full cut jet and lace, finest quality Kersey Cloth. latest style, lined throughout with finest quality satin and silk lining, Reduced from $35 and $50.

WAS ALMOST DISMANTLED.

Bark Yosemite's Long and Perilous Voyage. The British bark Yosemite, Capt. Bal

our, which sailed from Pisagua March last, with a cargo of dynamite, arrived in port to-day in a battered-up condition after a long, exciting and perilous voyage.

March 20, in latitude 45.32, longitude
84.27, she encountered a severe westsouthwest to west gale, lasting fortyeight hours, during which she lost her mizzenmast and all gear attached. Her lifeboats were smashed and she was compelled to rig a jury mast.

May 29, in latitude 28.34, longitude 70.26, she encountered a heavy squall, during which she lost her inner and outer jibs, upper foretopsail, mizzenstaysail, maintopgallant staysail and foretopgallant sail.

March 31, in latitude 47.37, longitude
45, she passed the British ship Persian Empire, from Sydney for London, thirty-ve days out. April 20, latitude 19.42, longitude 25.17, she passed the British bark Inversek, from Caleta
Buena, for Queenstown, for orders, seventy-five days out.

MET WITH MANY MISHAPS.

The New Tank Steamer Washingten's Eventful Maiden Trip. The new_oil tank steamer Washington arrived this morning after a series of mishaps on her malden voyage. She was built by the Vulcan Company at Freilin is 2,775 tons register and fitted with all is 2.7% tons register and fitted with all modern improvements and appliances.

While on her trial trip she ran acround in the Baitic. After starting on her voyage to this port she ran acround April 7 on the Falster Bo Reef, in the Haltic, damaging several plates in the ship's bottom. She was hauled off and proceeded to Hamburg, where repairs were made.

On May 28, at 4 A. M., in latitude 46, longitude 35.30, during fine weather, one of the propeller blades dropped off, and at 4 P. M. of the same date she lost another blade of her propeller. The vessel proceeded at reduced speed and reached Bandy Hook at 1 A. M. to-fay.

The Washington is commanded by Capt. Dincklage, formerly of the Deutschland, and is consigned to Gustav Heye

BROADWAY AND CHAMBERS ST.

SHIP HABITANT BURNED.

Gutted at Melbourne After Landin a Cargo from New York.

(By Associated Press.) MELBOURNE, Victoria, June 8.-The British ship Habitant, which sailed from New York on Jan. 31 last for Mel-bourne, has been burned on the Yarra-Yarra River, She was completely gutted. rarra River. She was completely gutted.
Fortunately her cargo was landed before the fire broke out.
A vessel loaded with kerosene, lying alongside the Habitant, narrowly escaped destruction.

The Habitant was a ship of 1.619 tons register, and was built at Scott's Bay, N. S., in 1885. Her dimensions were: 225 feet long, 42 feet 7 inches beam, 24 feet deep. She hailed from Windsor, N. S.

SIX SEALERS MISSING. News from Japan Raises Doubts as to Their Safety.

(By Associated Press.)
SAN FRANCISCO, June 8.—The lates news from the Japan coast is anything news from the Japan coast is anything but encouraging to the sealers. In ad-dition to the four vessels known to have been loat, it is reported that there are six other sealing schooners missing. They are the Mary H. Thomas, Allon, Battler, San Diego, Unga and the Kate And Ann.

Not only have they not touched at Hakodate or Yokohama, but they have not been sighted by any of the vessels which have put in there. The missing scalers all sailed from San Francisco, carrying crews numbering 198 men in all.

ABANDONED THEIR VESSEL

Union street, Brooklyn, while sitting in All Got on the Fuerst Hismarck Though Little Damage Was Done. Capt. Albers of the Hamburg-American liner Fuerst Bismarck, reported on arrival this morning that May 22, while his vessel was en rout to Southampton and Hamburg, from New York, the Fuerst Bismarck came in collision with the French barkentine Louise, of St. Nazaire. Capt. Albers says he had his officers overhaul the Louise and found her not harmed. The captain and crew of the barkentine retused, however, to remain on board, and were taken on the litzgerald, aged six, was instantly lilled this morning at the Madison staron by a train on the Delaware, Lackwanna and Western road.

The little girl was on her way to hoof, and was crossing the track, when he way to find a squeeze he Hospital as the result of a squeeze he received this morning between a cable for an und a truck. Barstano ran across the track in front of 175 Broadway just as car No. 101 and a Beadleston & Woerz brewery truck of the barkentine retused, however, to remain on board, and were taken on the litzgerald, aged six, was instantly lilled this morning that May 22, while received this morning between a cable for an und a truck. Barstano ran across the track in front of 175 Broadway just as car No. 101 and a Beadleston & Woerz brewery truck of the barkentine retused, however, to remain on board, and were taken on the litzgerald, aged six, was instantly lilled this morning that May 22, while received this morning between a cable car and a truck. Barstano ran across the track in front of 175 Broadway just as car No. 101 and a Beadleston & Woerz brewery truck of the barkentine retused, however, to remain on board, and were taken on the Indianal Carlon of the barkentine and was just as car No. 101 and a Beadleston & Woerz he was just as car No. 101 and a Beadleston & Woerz he was just as car No. 101 and a Beadleston & Woerz he was just as car No. 101 and a Beadleston & Woerz he was just as car No. 101 and a Beadleston & Woerz he was just as car No. 101 and a Beadleston & Woerz he was just as car No. 101 and a Beadleston & Woerz he was just as car No. 101 and a Beadleston & Woerz he was Indisputable. Why spend $1 for a bottle of medicine

Heecham's pills, costing only 25 cents, will cure nearly all known diseases? This ler is because constipation is the cause of tave, nearly all aliments, and Heecham's pills enter

THE VERY LATEST PERFUME NOBILITY AND AUSTOCRACY

J. G. MOUSON & CO.

We can afford to sell the finest clothes for less money than any other house, because we are the largest wholesale manufacturers of fine clothing in the world and buy our materials in such large quantities that the mills naturally give us special close prices. Our wholesale warehouse is corner Broadway and Bleecker St., and our tailor shops at 153, 155 and 157 Crosby

St. are equipped with the most modern cloth-testing, cutting and tailoring machinery extant, and our cutters and tailors are the most intelligent and scientific that can be had. With such a combination of forces, needs only your examination of our goods to convince you that we easily can and do sell the finest tailor-made simply impossible for any other concern to successfully compete with us. FOR EXAMPLE, WE PLACE ON SALE

TO-DAY. AT BOTH STORES,

OLD HERALD BUILDING. BROADWAY AND ANN ST. STEWART BUILDING,

BROADWAY AND CHAMBERS ST. 500 Men's Suits

at $10.00. Made in latest styles, 3 and

4-button Cutaways, in blue and black sergs, Hawthorns mixtures and scotch cheviots. Not a suit in the lot but is excellent retall value at $15.00. ALSO 100 CLAY'S BLACK WORSTED DOVETAIL, CUTAWAY FROCK making a complete semi-dress suit at $15 that retailers could not afford to sell for less than $25. AT BOTH STORES.

CUTAWAY COATS AND VESTS

AND 100 PAIRS TROUSERS

at $3.25.

OLD HERALD BUILDING. BROADWAY AND ANN ST. STEWART BUILDING.

Open Saturday Evening Until 9 O'Clock.

Real Estate.

Most reasonable, attractive home sites within minutes of City Hall. Pive miles of Hudson River front opposite the Allusdes.
Lowest commutation of any suburb of New York.
Noted for the excellence of its public school.
25.000 population, has doubled in ten years.
The healthlest city in New York State.
Exceptional manufacturing facilities.
Adjoins New York City on the north
Its most beautiful suburb.

ACCESS TO YONKERS.

ACCESS TO YONKERS.

"Yonkers Rapid Transit" trains leave 155th St.
Ration, 8th Ave. "L" every half hour.
"N. Y. Cent, & H. R. R. R" trains (35 in all) seave Grand Central Station at frequent intervals between 7.60 A. M. and 11.45 P. M.
"Albany Day Hoats' leave ft. Desbrosses St. at 1.65 and ft. of 22d St. at 9 A. M.
"Str. "C. A. Feene" leaves ft. Spring St. at 3.45
"M., Saturdays, 2.30 P. M.
"Str. "C. A. Feene" leaves ft. Franklin St. at 3
"Str. "C. A. Feene" leaves ft. Franklin St. at 3
"Str. "C. A. Feene" leaves ft. Franklin St. at 3
"Str. "C. A. Feene" leaves ft. Franklin St. at 3
"Str. "C. A. Feene" leaves ft. Franklin St. at 3
"Str. "C. A. Feene" leaves ft. Franklin St. at 3
"Str. "C. A. Feene" leaves ft. Franklin St. at 3
"Str. "C. A. Feene" leaves ft. Franklin St. at 3
"Str. "C. A. Feene" leaves ft. Franklin St. at 3
"Str. "C. A. Feene" leaves ft. Franklin St. at 3
"Str. "C. A. Feene" leaves ft. Franklin St. at 3
"Str. "C. A. Feene" leaves ft. Franklin St. at 3
"Str. "C. A. Feene" leaves ft. Franklin St. at 3
"Str. "C. A. Feene" leaves ft. Franklin St. at 3
"Str. "C. A. Feene" leaves ft. Franklin St. at 3
"Str. "C. A. Feene" leaves ft. Franklin St. at 3
"Str. "C. A. Feene" leaves ft. Franklin St. at 3
"Str. "C. A. Feene" leaves ft. Franklin St. at 3
"Str. "C. A. Feene" leaves ft. Franklin St. at 3
"Str. "C. A. Feene" leaves ft. Franklin St. at 3
"Str. "C. A. Feene" leaves ft. Franklin St. at 3
"Str. "C. A. Feene" leaves ft. Franklin St. at 3
"Str. "C. A. Feene" leaves ft. Franklin St. at 3
"Str. "C. A. Feene" leaves ft. Franklin St. at 3
"Str. "C. A. Feene" leaves ft. Franklin St. at 3
"Str. "C. A. Feene" leaves ft. Franklin St. at 3
"Str. "C. A. Feene" leaves ft. Franklin St. at 3
"Str. "C. A. Feene" leaves ft. Franklin St. at 3
"Str. "C. A. Feene" leaves ft. Franklin St. at 3
"Str. "C. A. Feene" leaves ft. Franklin St. at 3
"Str. "C. A. Feene" leaves ft. Franklin St. at 3
"Str. "C. A. Feene" leaves ft. Franklin St. at 3
"Str. "C. A. Feene" leaves ft. Franklin St. at 3
"Str. "C. A. Feene" leaves ft. Fra

PARK HILL,

Barstano Was Caught Between

Cable Car and a Beer Truck. Michael Barstano is in Chambers Street can liner Fuerst Bismarck, reported on Hospital as the result of a squeeze he

French Protest in Madagascar. (fly Associated Prem.)

ANTANARIVO, Madagascar, May 21.for a complaint when one box of In consequence of the concession of rubber district lands made to John L. Wal-BIERMANHEIDELBERG&O. CAM MEYER MEANS STANDARD OF MERIT. 6TH AVE., CORNER 20TH ST.

TO-MORROW, SATURDAY.

will offer the Greatest Opportunity of the Season to intending buyers of

SUMMER FOOTWEAR

CHILDREN

MISSES' RUSSET GOAT BUTTON SHOES. Spring Heel, sizes 11 to 2, $1.50.

Children's Russet Goat Button Shoes. Spring Heel, sizes 6 1-2 to 10 1-2.

CHILD'S RUSSET GOAT BUTTON SHOES, Light Spring Heel, sizes 3 to 8, $1.00. INFANTS' RUSSET GOAT BUTTON SHOES.

BOYS' RUSSIAN CALP LACE SHOES. In All Sizes and Widths,

$1.50. All of the above shoes are regular lines of this season's production and are warranted to prove satisfactory for wear and fit. My children's department is complete with all the necessities for children's footwear at prices astonishingly low.

I HAVE NO AGENCIES OR BRANCH STORES. MY SHOES CANNOT BE PURCHASED OF ANY OTHER

Open Saturdays Until 10 P.M. A. J. CAMMEYER.

6th Ave., cor. 20th St. Real Estate WM. E. TAYLOR,

Now or never. New homes going up in all diversers. Fronting the Hudson River and the Palisades. Complete in every appointment. Developed and for sale by the American Red State Recomment Roll Bloom River and the rections. Buy where lots are sure to increase in value, and this is the spot. Some of the best value, and this is the spot. Some of the value, and this is the spot. Some of the value, and this is the spot. Some of the value, and this is the spot. Some of the value, and this is the spot. Some of the value, and this is the spot. Some of the value, and this is the spot. Some of the value, and this is the spot. Some of the value, and this is the spot. Some of the value, and this is the spot. Some of the value, and this is the spot. Some of the value, and this is the spot. Some of the value, and this is the spot. Some of the value, and this is the spot. Some of the value, and this is the spot. Some of the value, and this is t

NEARLY SQUEEZED TO DEATH WM. E. TAYLOR. Hackensack, N. J.

This elegant park is now being beautified with roads and gravel walks, and building after can be obtained at prices ranging from $1.50 to $1.500, payable in monthly linealments. Within 5 minutes with of Murray Hill and Broadway station in Long Island Railroad. This perice. It can be reached via 34th street Ferry in 25 minutes, and trains run at all hours of the day and all statements and trains free passes to am from the property, and further particulars apply to owner. Walker Price 1988 W. L. 4 New St. New York City; also 1011 N. M. REID, 241 East 34th M., city.

ATTACKED IN HIS HOME ruggist Crawford Beaten by Fore: Unknown Men.

J. R. Crawford, who lives at 28 Spencer place, Brooklyn, and conducts a large drug store at 1179 Fulton street, in that city, was assaulted at his residence last Wednesday morning by four un-known men, who gained entrance to the nouse on the pretense of being subpoens house on the precess.

He was at his store when they arrived, but was notified by his daughter, who told him that she thought they were burglars. When Mr. Crawford went home and asked their business, the intruders knocked him down and kicked and brutally beat him. His assatiants made their escape. The police think the men had planned a robbery.